

SPEECH & DRAMA

Adjudicator: Mary Ann Tear LLAM, LISTD, AISTD, DipLCDD, DipEd, CertTESOL

Mary Ann Tear is a BIFF adjudicator, an examiner for Trinity College London, choreographer, director and Performing Arts lecturer and practitioner. Her work has taken her to Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Canada, Sri Lanka, Dubai, Bermuda, as well as centres in Europe and the United Kingdom.

After spending 13 years in Singapore, where she co-founded the Singapore Performing Arts Festival, she has recently re-located back to the UK but she is still pursuing her adjudicating, examining, lecturing, and theatre direction.

Mary Ann was a lecturer in Performing Arts working for LaSalle, NAFA, & SOTA in Singapore and the Universities of Hertfordshire and Middlesex in the UK whilst also pursuing her professional theatrical career with performance, choreography, and direction in drama, musical theatre, pantomime, physical theatre, and, most recently, chamber opera.

She always had an interest in teaching and ran her own schools in Hertfordshire working with students of all ages in drama and dance. She led a Youth Theatre and was involved with many community arts projects in the UK. She has created programmes for the teaching of Voice for theatre, public speaking and debate and delivers these both online and face to face.

Whilst enjoying all aspects of her varied career Mary Ann also finds time to read, debate, listen to music, go to the theatre, visit art galleries, watch the latest movies believing that it is important to be in touch with the current global Arts scene
